Hear the City Hall Discussed

Leaders in the movement to procure a new city building for Carmel have been accused of trying to railroad the project through, regardless of the wishes of the taxpayers. The course that they have taken, however, indicates anything but such an attitude. They have arranged for a public meeting where and when the entire proposition will be presented to the people, and any person who desires it will be given the opportunity to speak for or against the project. Carmel need not have a city hall thrust upon her if the people do not want one; but before any person decides one way or the other he should learn the facts, and this he can do by attending the mass meeting that has been called for January 15, at 8:00 o'clock p. m. in Sunset School Auditorium.

Carmel Council Rewards Faithfulness

The Carmel city council held its first regular meeting of the year Wednesday night, January 2, and the second and final reading of the ordinance calling a special municipal election January 24 to vote on bonds to build a new city hall, found all voting eye with the exception of Councilman Rowntree.

The resignation of J. B. Adams as chairman of the Ralph Chandler Harrison Memorial Library board of trustees was regrettably accepted. Kent Clark was unanimously approved for the vacancy.

The council voted a vacation of one month with pay for Police Chief Gus Englund, who is still in the hospital with an infected foot. The members considered this move only fitting in consideration of Mr. Englund's long and faithful service to the city.

A resolution was proposed and approved to send an expression of appreciation and thanks to the United States troops and Col. Ralph M. Parker for assistance in the emergency presented by the disappearance of Mrs. Elliot Boke Shaffner.

The proposal of Sanitary district trustees of Carmel area as submitted by the secretary, A. T. Shand, was accepted. It allows the purchase of the city sewer maintenance equipment at 30 per cent discount from a fixed value of $334, since the district has assumed charge of the sewers of the town. Earl R. Wermuth was approved for general police duty at a salary of $150 at present, less 10 per cent deductible from the pay of all employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Work have returned from their honeymoon of two weeks and are establishing their home in Carmel. Mrs. Work is the former Alice Barnikol.

Names Removed From Polling List May Be Restored

County Clerk C. F. Joy provides the following information relative to who is qualified to vote at the forthcoming special election to decide the question of bonding the city for a city hall:

To the Common Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea:
Gentlemen:

I note that you have called a municipal bond election for January 24, 1935.

In order to avoid misunderstanding among the electors in your city concerning the present status of registration for that election, I judge it might be advisable to give some publicity to the following statement:

I am now engaged in the cancellation of the registrations of those electors in the county who failed to vote at BOTH the August Primary and the November general elections in 1934. Notification of such cancellation were sent out this week, and registration affidavits will be furnished to the registration deputies so that such of these electors who desire to re-register may do so.

The point that I wish to bring to your attention is this: Those electors whose registrations have been cancelled in accordance with the requirements of the law as above stated will NOT be entitled to vote at the election on January 24, 1935; and as the law requires that the registration books, close forty days before election there will not be an opportunity for Public Meeting!

The City Council of Carmel-by-the-Sea has arranged for a public meeting to be held on the evening of January 15, in the Sunset School Auditorium for the discussion of the new City Hall project.

This is a matter of importance to every voter and taxpayer in the city. In order to correct some of the misinformation that is being circulated, the Council has arranged to have the matter fully explained and to answer any questions that may be asked. It is hoped that as many as possible will be present.

Remember the place and time. Take a note of it. At Sunset School Auditorium, Tuesday evening, January 15, 8:00 o'clock.

them to re-register prior to election.

The registration in the city of Carmel-by-the-Sea for the general election in November was 1451. Of this number 312 have been cancelled for failure to vote. This leaves a registration of 1139 for the municipal bond election on January 24.

CARMEL POSTOFFICE HAS PROSPEROUS YEAR

A brisk rise in business at the Carmel postoffice during the latter part of 1934 is shown by figures submitted by Acting Postmaster Irene Cator. The year's total was $31,095.53, as against $28,315.64 in 1933.

Quarterly records show January-March last year as $6,729.93; April-June $6,811.17; July-September $8,552.10 and October-December $9,002.33. In 1933 the quarterly sums were $6,610.66, $6,661.94, $8,171.34 and $7,982.01.

These figures are based on actual business done, and do not include money order sales or postal savings accounts.

BODY OF MRS. SHAFFNER NOT YET RECOVERED ANNUAL PARISH MEETING ANNOUNCED

The discovery of several pieces of clothing in a deep whirlpool a short distance offshore from Cook's Cove, although unrelated to the case, has indicated that the spot may be a collecting point for many objects along the inshore waters.

Officer Charles Guth, acting for Chief of Police Gus Englund, said that today's activities are centered in the kelp beds in the vicinity of the whirlpool. A shore patrol is also being maintained, extending from Thirteenth street to Moss Beach and from Thirteenth to Carmel Highlands. A climax to the search is expected momentarily.

The Rev. Austin B. Chinn has announced the annual parish meeting of All Saints Episcopal Church to take place next Monday evening, January 7, at 7:30 o'clock at the Parish House. The meeting is for the purpose of electing vestrymen for the coming year, delegates to the annual convention and all officers for the various organizations of the church.

The Misses Patricia Jehanne Havens - Monteagle of Pebble Beach had as guests over the holidays Mr. and Mrs. Gean Dupuy, Mr. Newell Armsby and Mr. Taylor Tillsberry.

Mrs. F. L. Shedden of Cape Cod is spending the month with Mrs. F. A. Greatwood.

NOTICE OF CHANGE In Publication Day of CARMEL SUN

Commencing January 15 the Carmel Sun will be mailed to its subscribers on Tuesday of each week, instead of on Friday.

We are making this change after a careful survey of the local field, in which we found that both the public and the business houses were in favor of it. At present every publication is sent out on Friday, thereby creating a duplication of both news and advertising. By coming out on Tuesday Carmel Sun enters an unoccupied field, will be able to present week-end news earlier and provide a medium by which business houses may develop trade for the early part of the week and thereby more evenly distribute their sales.

Please bear in mind the change and—

THE BAROMETER OF CONTROVERSY GROWS UP BUSINESS.

Roger Babson, whose business analysis and predictions for 1935 were given prominence in the metropolitan papers recently, reflects the old-fashioned New England teachings of his birthplace—Gloucester, Mass.

As a boy he was reared in an atmosphere of hard work and hustle—doing chores, working a truck garden, and selling his produce from house to house. Since that time a business venture has always been of the keenest enjoyment to him.

Upon graduating in 1898 from the Massachusetts Institute of technology, Roger Babson immediately turned to the business and financial side of engineering, specializing in the statistics in the interest of protecting investments, health, and prosperity. His exertions, however, brought upon him one of the worst of maladies, tuberculosis. On the advice of the doctors he and his young wife started for the West. "As good as dead!" said his friends, and they never expected to see him again—but he came back!

However, it was while he was convalescing that he worked out some of the possibilities and problems of business statistics. The Babson Statistical organization, with twelve clients, was thus born and carried on by himself and one helper in a little cottage in Wellesley, Mass. That was over thirty years ago.

Realizing the need of our young men to have more training in the fundamentals and less in the frills of business, Mr. Babson, about twelve years ago, organized, under the Scientific and Educational Acts, the Babson Institute. This institute has now a beautiful campus of 125 acres at Babson Park, Massachusetts, with ten modern buildings and a steady growing enrollment. Believing that a business training of the same type was likewise essential for young women, Mrs. Babson organized Weber College—one semester in Boston and the other in Florida.

As a lecturer on business problems, Mr. Babson is well known in most of the cities of this country and Canada.

A man of unbounded energy, Roger W. Babson has done more than any other man to make statistics a live issue in business and instill in business men a broader vision. His life work may be summed up in these two quotations: "What we get out of life is simply a reaction from what we put into it," and "We cannot harm or help others without likewise harming or helping ourselves."

Controversy, H. L. Mack's magazine of western viewpoint on men and affairs, becomes of age with its first issue of volume two. It has become a periodical with a purpose—an endeavor to stimulate constructive thought. It is neither socialistic nor reactionary, but seeks to solve the problems of the distribution of wealth through the intelligent approach, rather than the emotional. It is well worth reading. Success to your mission, Controversy.

Associated with Mr. Mack are Elliott Taylor, as managing editor, and J. B. (Peggy) Perkins, who will continue as business and advertising manager.

Carmel Man Weds Stockton Girl

About fifty relatives and close friends witnessed the beautiful service that united Miss Anna Eagal of Stockton and Jack Jordan of Carmel last Monday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Eagal in Stockton.

During the arrival of the guests, Mrs. Dorothy Dunne Jacobs played selections on the harp. Miss Mary Dunne played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bridal party made its appearance. The service was read by the Rev. Seth C. Hawley, rector of St. John's Episcopal church. The fireplace, completely covered with ranunculus, was the improvised altar and clusters of ivory tapers lighted the impressive scene.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. John H. Eagal. She wore an afternoon frock of heavy silk crepe in turquoise blue, with hat and shoes matching. Her flowers were orchids.

The only attendant of the bride was her sister, Miss Jane Eagal, who was becomingly gowned in gold silk crepe and carried Talisman roses. Mr. Jordan was attended by John Morro of Carmel.

A buffet wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and guests after the ceremony. The table was beautifully appointed in white, covered with a handsome lace cloth, with cyclamens and candles forming the centerpieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan are sailing to Hawaii where they are spending a couple of months before returning to Carmel where Mr. Jordan is connected with the management of Pine Inn, of which his father is the owner. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jordan. He and his bride are both graduates of the College of the Pacific in Stockton. The new

Mrs. Jordan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eagal, prominent in Stockton society.

GEORGE MARION TELLS ONE ON HIMSELF

One of the treasured bits in George Marion's scrapbook of letters from famous friends of the dramatic and artistic world is a terse communication from the world-renowned John Kendrick Bangs, author and lecturer, now dead. On a slip of paper dated January 5, 1908, Mr. Bangs had pasted a clipping of a newspaper headline that announced, "OLD CRUISER MARION BURNS." Under the clipping was the following solicitous note: "Dear George; . . . I hope you aren't a total loss Faithfully, yours, J. K. B."

Members of the Manzanita Club enjoyed a "Tinroof" on Christmas eve. Everything was on the house.

As yet the floor plan of the new City Hall has not been shown. The exterior plan gives an idea of some old houses moved on the lot and nailed together. Architectural technique is lacking.

"Jerry" is not in favor of a "Hoosegow" in the new City Hall. Why?

A grocery store opened on Sunday in Pacific Grove. "John Law" pinched the grocer. (Possibly it interfered with church attendance.)

What is this Public Utility district racket the water company is trying to put over? Gee, how they do want to get rid of those old water pipes.

Funny about that guy in Pacific Grove sleeping in his auto and the gendarmerie putting him in the bastille. Maybe they wanted him to try out a new mattress they bought for the "cooler."

The Sanitary Board, at present, is in a state of tranquility. Why not inspect the new sewer system recently installed at Monterey and which empties direct into the bay. By-the-way, Mr. Campbell, how is it the State Board of Health allowed it?

There is a state law that forbids a city official to do business with a municipality if he profits from the transaction.

The attorney for the Monterey Peninsula refused a job on the California State Fish and Game Commission. While Argyll likes a wild duck occasionally his nostrils rebel against the fish odors that emanate from the canneries.

When you want to mislead anyone tell them the truth. If you want them to believe you, tell a lie.

There are, so it is said, some Real Estate agents who can conceal themselves behind the implement that is used to pull corks out of bottles.

"Marriage means mental deterioration to women." Thus said a Miss Gertrude Steel-Brook a short time ago to a gathering of the Y. W. C. A. in Pacific Grove. Not being a Mrs., how did she learn that? The above is in keeping with a sweet young thing in her teens who was going about the country lecturing to women with families on how to raise babies.

Safety Effort Cites Intersection Rules

Greatest danger in traffic lurks at intersections, where seventy per cent of accidents occur.

Launching a renewed effort to combat the threat of increased traffic deaths and injuries in 1935, the Public Safety Department of the California State Automobile Association will center attention during January on the greatest point of hazard—the intersection.

Analysis of accidents, says a statement by the motorists' organization announcing the effort, proves that the caution at crossings of the streets or highways is the outstanding requirement for safe travel.

"Too many drivers approaching an intersection gamble upon the chance that some other motorist will not be attempting to cross at the same time," the statement declares. "Many motorists are inclined to travel through intersections at an unsafe speed. This lack of caution is particularly dangerous at 'blind' intersections where the driver's view is obstructed."

In cooperation with local safety groups the Automobile Association will conduct a series of educational efforts stressing the need for careful driving at intersections. Regard for the legal speed limit and for the right of way rules at such points will be urged.

State law limits speed to fifteen miles per hour at any obstructed intersection, defined any intersection where the driver, during his last 100 feet, approach, does not have a clear view of all converging streets and highways for a distance of 200 feet along the intersecting roads or streets.

The right of way rule, established by law, is that a driver approaching an intersection shall yield to the one who has already entered the intersection. When two cars enter at approximately the same time, the driver on the left is required to yield to the driver on the right.

Another Good Time Next Thursday Evening.

Another good time is in store for Carmel dancers when on next Thursday evening Al Knight and his four-piece orchestra assemble at the Denny-Watrous Gallery, providing music for the regular fortnightly dance.

These dances are proving popular, as was attested by the large crowd attending the between holiday affair last week, all reporting an enjoyable time. A big crowd is looked for at the coming event.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Gentry, accompanied by Mrs. Gentry's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Salza, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ware, motored to Yosemite and enjoyed the winter sports over the holidays.

Public Opinion

The Carmel Sun invites its readers to make free use of this department in expressing their views on any subject of public interest.

"JAM" THAT'S NOT SO NICE

Editor Carmel Sun. Dear Sir: May I avail myself of your "Public Opinion" column to express myself on the thoughtlessness of some of the patrons of our local theatre?

Being a constant patron of the movie house there has come to my attention a proneness on the part of many other patrons who, on leaving the theatre at the conclusion of the first performance, do not seem to consider that there are other patrons who are also leaving. Those first out take their own good time in reaching the street thus delaying those who are following, the result being a "jam" in the foyer. Those desiring to see the second show are anxious for entrance in order to secure their favorite seats and naturally press forward; the outgoing ones, delayed by the slow progress of the leaders, must crash their way through those waiting, the result being much disorder and loss of time among the out- and in-going patrons.

In my opinion this could be avoided if the leaders of the outgoing crowd would hasten their steps instead of loitering to talk over the pleasures and merits of the play, as was noticed Tuesday evening. So dense was the crush, both ways, that it was only after the door attendant threatened to close the doors that order was restored.

And another thing: If patrons carried their own tickets there would be less delay at the door, caused by the holder of five or six tickets stopping to explain for whom the extra tickets are for. Thank you.

CRUSHED.

An Appreciation

Editor Carmel Sun: From one who has watched with keen interest the growth of the Nativity play at Sunset school from a very meager beginning to a fine production which has won the admiration of the Peninsula.

The first dramatic effort at Christmas called the Nativity play was about six years ago in the old auditorium. With the assistance of Edward Kuster, of the Golden Bough, who loaned stage lights, and Leta Bathen, who made costumes, coached and helped as only Leta can, a successful school play was given.

For the last three years the play has been staged in the new auditorium and has grown, not only in the number who take part, but in the sincerity of interpretation and spiritual atmosphere.

Under the direction of Miss Madaline Curry, director of music at Sunset school, the voices of the young actors are trained to interpret the lofty theme in pure, soft tone quality. To Miss Curry, the teachers and

Mr. and Mrs. Bathen, we wish to express appreciation for this fine contribution to the spiritual education of the community.

DAISY B. TAYLOR.

Miss Era Franklin, teacher of Art in the Ventura Junior High School, and Miss Williams, Art teacher in the Salinas schools, spent Wednesday night with friends in Carmel.

Among Carmelites entertaining at the Hotel Del Monte New Year's Eve, were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Work, Jr., who had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eugene V. Smith of Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Lane of Palo Alto and sons, Billy and Miles, have been the guests of Mrs. Jean Ricketts on Fifth and Lincoln. Mrs. Lane is Mrs. Rickett's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Browne of Los Angeles returned to their home Monday after a Christmas visit with Mr. Browne's mother, Mrs. Esther G. Browne, of the Betsy Ann Home Food shop.

Among the Carmelites driving south for the Tournament of Roses and the football game in Pasadena last Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Trevett, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Meese, and Mr. Walter Egan.

Friends of Mrs. Sylvia Ramsey, former resident of Carmel and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Emma Otey, will be interested in her return to Los Angeles on New Year's Day, from a trip around the world. Mrs. Ramsey had been gone for over six months.

Mr. Frank Wickman of Carmel Highlands motored to Berkeley Hills last Friday to remain over New Year's day with Mrs. Wickman who is spending the winter months there. He was accompanied by Miss Anne Greene, Mr. F. W. Newhall and Mr. George Ficke.

Let's Listen in to this conversation

Here's what they are saying:

"It's no trouble to get a Federal Housing Loan for Gas Heating Equipment. We can have three years to pay and payments are only a few dollars a month."

"Let's get it done right away. I just can't keep this house warm with all my other things to do. It is something we should have done a long time ago."

These folks are absolutely right. And there are thousands of families doing the same thing.

It is important, too, to do it now. January and February just ahead are the coldest months of the year. And there is nothing that compares with Gas Heating for thorough, whole house warmth that can cope with any kind of weather.

Perhaps you have other home modernization plans. Painting, papering, general fixing up of your home anew again. Then by all means install gas heating equipment to help keep your home freshly bright and new looking for years to come. An immediate installation can be made, quickly and without bother or inconvenience to the regular routine of your home.

Grand Jury Gives Its Final Report

The 1934 grand jury for Monterey county rendered its final report to Judge H. G. Jorgensen late last week through its foreman, Bruce Church, of Salinas. Before discharging the jurors the bench tendered the court's thanks for the excellent work done by the deliberative body during the past year.

The following were among the recommendations made by the grand jury:

Restore the 15 per cent cut in the salary of Judge Jorgensen so that he will get $4000 per year instead of $3400. It was pointed out by one of the grand jurors that Judge Jorgensen by hard work does the work of two judges and should get an increase.

That the county and township officers enforce regulations prohibiting slot machines and gambling houses in the county.

That the law requiring teachers' institutes be repealed.

That laws should be changed to make it easier to change the boundaries of high school districts.

That the publication of school budgets be repealed.

That a fire proof safe be placed in the office of superintendent of schools.

That larger school districts use the payroll form of school warrants.

That the necessary steps be taken to prevent prisoners from escaping so readily from the county jail.

Make the court house less of a fire trap and improve its appearance.

Put valuable records in a building safe from fire.

Inspect all schools as to fire and earthquake resistance.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

"Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory forever and ever." These words from I Timothy comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, January 6, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "God." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "The Lord reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he has girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting" (Psalms 93:1, 2).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "God is individual, incorporeal. He is divine Principle, Love, the universal cause, the only creator, and there is no other self-existence. He is all inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else." (p. 331).

SPENT HOLIDAY HERE

The Philip Brown cottage on Stevenson Road was occupied through the holidays by a party of prominent Berkeleyans. The group included Prof. Haakon Chevalier of the University of California, Mrs. Chevalier and their son, Jacques, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rabinowitz, and the Misses Ruth Moore, Edith Arnstein and Dorothy Schenkman.

OCTOGENARIAN PASSES

Mrs. Becente Dutra, resident of the Peninsula for many years, passed away suddenly on New Year's eve at Salinas, where she had made her home recently on Central avenue. Death was due to heart failure. Mrs. Dutra was 81 at the time of her passing and is well known to scores of residents of the county. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Ehrland Cooper of Carmel Valley. Funeral services were held in Carmel.

The Sun Spotter

LATEST NEWS FLASHES of BARGAINS in the old HOME TOWN . . . the Sun Spotter takes a bow in the Carmel Spotlight and hereafter, ladies and gentlemen, aims to spot all the values in town and show you that it DOES PAY to shop AT HOME. Our place in the Sun will include bits of this and that to be found about town . . . rare treasures . . . bargains . . . wares old and new. SUN SPOTS, dear Readers, influence the temperature of this mundane sphere and the SUN SPOTTER affects the temperature of the BUYING PUBLIC.

You've heard of DRASTIC REDUCTIONS and so have I, but today I really met some in the LITTLE SHOP next to the Library. Antique glass, colorful Italian pottery, smart hand woven bags, and the wispiest, gayest little plaid scarves you ever saw. And there's magic in those dainty scarves. Brilliant as they are, they go with absolutely anything. I'm going back to get one of those adorable black velvet evening bags. Don't forget to drop in there right away while those bargains are on . . . and, incidentally, ask Mrs. Edwards to show you that lovely portrait of June Delight. It's a Walter Russell.

And speaking of spotting, we spotted the genial Bob Smith of the Western Union Smiths, with a bound hand, indicating either too much door bell ringing on New Year's Eve, or too much handshaking—or something.

You don't have to be red or even pinkish in inclination to go Russian on Wednesdays and Thursdays. That's the time The Tavern has Russian Bortsch on its menu. When you are in Monterey, keep your eye peeled for 334 Alvarado. The food's swell.

LOST—by some one and—FOUND—almost daily outside the Sun door asking for (and receiving its daily bread and milk, is a dear little faintly tiger-ish grey and white kitten,—about half grown. Maybe it's spoofing us and just likes to bask in the sunlight (sorry!) but we think it's just lost, so if you can't find yours come and help yourself.

Nicol Smith in Travel Talk on Dutch Guiana.

And now for an intellectual discovery . . . our minds can't be always on commercial bargains, even in the Sun Spotter. Young Nicol Smith, son of Robert Hayes Smith of Burlingame, is recently back from an exploration of the dense jungle of the Kabalebo country of Dutch Guiana. On this most interesting subject Mr. Smith will speak in the Denny-Watrous Gallery on Saturday evening, January 12, illustrating his lecture by moving pictures of this almost unexplored country. The lecture will deal with Nicol Smith's quest for the three-fingered Indians, in the course of which he will describe the vampire bats, the man-eating Pirrae, and other incidents of thrilling interest.

"Glory Lane"

Coming This Month

Glory Lane, a new play from the pen of John Patrick, NBC radio star, will make its bow in Carmel January 24, 25 and 26.

While this is only the playwright's fourth play, he is the author of over two thousand five hundred radio skits that have won him international fame and places him in the ranks of one of the finest writers of dialogue in the country.

His recordings proved as popular in New Zealand and Australia as they were from Houston to Halifax. He has had everything from lions to pet ducks named after him and has received as many as twelve thousand fan letters in one day in Cleveland. It was while making personal appearances in the east that illness brought him to Carmel where he has lived for the past year.

Glory Lane was especially written to suit the talents of Miss Sybil Leonard, who plays the title role of the famous Julie Lane who returns at the height of her success to visit her birth place, a small town in Minnesota, and remains to become the wife of the town doctor.

Miss Leonard will invest this role with authenticity as she herself went on the stage when a child and became a headliner on the Orpheum circuit before she was twenty. Her contemporaries in theatrical circles are household names and her life has been crowded with success. This vehicle brings together the talents of two who have established themselves in the field of entertainment.

A cast of twenty supports Miss Leonard. Mrs. George Marion, Sr., plays the role of the sister who lives in the small town of Hurley. Years of experience as a professional actress will enable Mrs. Marion to give this role sympathy and sureness.

Mr. Byington Ford, who portrays the role of the faithful Kruger, needs no introduction to theatre goers of the peninsula.

The production is to be staged by Ralph Bell, motion picture and stage director. It was Mr. Bell who staged "Young Woodley" for Doug Fairbanks, Jr., and which served to bring him into the life of Joan Crawford.

This is the first of a series of original plays scheduled for tryouts in Carmel.

Scouts Report On Yosemite Trek

JACKIE LEIDIG
RATED AS FILM FIND

The Boy Scout committee having in charge the care of Carmel's two troops during their recent trip to the Yosemite where a three day encampment of the troops of the area was held, met at Normandy Inn Wednesday noon and received the report of Herman Crossman, who conducted the tour. Mr. Crossman said that the affair was a very successful one from every point of view. There were no accidents, no illness, and all the boys had the time of their young lives frolicking in the snow, viewing the scenic places, practising camp life and being entertained in numerous other ways.

The committee started to prepare for the same kind of an expedition again next year by discussing early plans and the procedure to follow in the matter.

Al Young scout executive for this area announced that the next court of honor for the area will take place in Watsonville February 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore Waldegrave entertained members of the cast and technical staff of "Springtime for Henry" at a supper party given after the performance Saturday night.

Jackie Leidig, son of Mrs. Florence Leidig, will begin his first film part since his recent screen test any day now. His role in the coming production of Penzner Pictures, Inc., will be a small one, but the company expects to use him in several more, and more important parts will be added as the lad gains experience. Authorities who have seen his screen tests say that he is a real find and predict a great future for Jackie.

The forthcoming production in which Jackie makes his professional debut is John B. Alden's presentation of "The King's Highway," a thrilling drama of early California, with most of the action centering in the Monterey Peninsula. Rod La Rocque and Mada Borka are being starred and the supporting cast includes Nigel de Brulier, Barry Norton and Mitchell Lewis. It is to be produced by B. V. Mindenburg and is under the direction of Max Pollock.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hildebrandt held open house on New Year's Day and many friends called.

Mrs. J. D. Turner and children, who have been occupying the Moore cottage on Scenio, have returned to Stockton.

Adult Education Classes Forming

The Adult Education movement has been growing consistently throughout the United States during the past two years. The National Administration at Washington has thrown its support behind this movement. The local program is being developed to meet the present day adult education needs of the community.

Adult Education is the oldest form of education in civilization. The success of the first adult education resulted in the traditions out of which Christianity arose.

In each great crisis of the human race, adults have gathered about leaders to develop the educational culture of the day. Modern civilization is going through another great crisis. Again adult education is growing by leaps and bounds, a national answer to the situation. Over 1200 students enrolled in the adult classes held by the Monterey Union High School district last term.

Classes located in the Sunset Grammar school for the second term starting Monday, January 7, are as follows:

General Art.

Mrs. Charlotte Morgan, instructor. Individualized instruction in pen and ink lettering, the practicing of technic in various media, still-life and costumed figure posing. Tuesdays, 7:15 to 9:15 p. m. Sunset school.

Poetry and Woodworking

Mr. Ernest Calley, instructor. Instruction in methods of hand built pottery, cast ware and wheel turned and jigged ware; glazing and firing. Individual projects in woodworking. Mondays 7:00 to 9:00 p. m., shop room Sunset Grammar School, Carmel.

Recreation.

Physical Education for men, Monday 7:15 to 9:15 p. m.

Physical Education for women, Tuesday 7:15 to 9:15 p. m.

Mr. Lockwood and Mrs. Uzel, instructors in charge.

Education for Foreign Born Citizenship, Tuesdays, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Miss Adelaide Stiles, instructor.

The following classes have been announced for other communities of the district, as follows:

Art—Life Drawing

Music, chorus, community orchestra, community band.

Commercial: Shorthand and advanced typing, elementary typing, bookkeeping, business mechanics.

Homemaking and Domestic Art: Parent education, dress-making and millinery.

Formal Studies: Spanish and French, Italian, Mathematics, U. S. history, English.

speaking, handicrafts and industrial courses.

Handicraft (weaving, linoleum carving), woodworking, radio telegraphy, auto mechanics, general mechanics, auto mechanics for women drivers, and classes for the foreign born.

An announcement of courses and further details may be obtained by phoning Monterey Union High school, Monterey. L. E. Wormley is directing the program.

January Calendar For Woman's Club

The first general meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club will be held next Monday afternoon, January 7, at 2:30. Mrs. M. F. Grant will speak on "Flowers and Furies, Mexican." Mrs. Grant is well qualified to speak on the subject as she spent five months in Mexico last summer, adding to her wide knowledge of Mexican lore, already extensive.

Section Meetings

The book section of the club met Wednesday morning, with Mrs. Rose De Yoe giving an interesting reading from "Rip Tide" by William Rose Benet. Mrs. I. N. Ford, chairman of the section, will be the speaker for the book section meeting January 16. She has not yet announced her subject. The garden section met Thursday at the home of Mrs. James K. Lynch, at Santa Lucia and Mission. Mrs. Gertrude Andrews reviewed "Winter Diversions of a Gardener." On January 17 the garden section will meet at the home of Mrs. Alfred Wolff, Ninth and San Antonio. Mrs. G. F. Beardsley will talk on "Mountain Flowers" and Mrs. Kent on "Japanese Gardens." A talk on Yugoslavia will be given for the current events section by Mrs. Willis G. White next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and a round table discussion is slated for the meeting of January 23.

The bridge section meets on January 14 and 28 at 2:00 o'clock, for tea and bridge and meetings of the bird study auxiliary group are scheduled to start from the home of Mrs. H. S. Nye on January 8, 15, 22 and 29.

New Year Reception

More than one hundred club members and their guests attended the colorful New Year's Day reception given by the Carmel Woman's Club at the Girl Scout House. A cozy fire in the huge fireplace, decorations of pine boughs and red berries, with clusters of gay balloons here and there, gave to the scene an air of festivity and and hospitality.

Refreshments of sandwiches, hot biscuits and cakes were served throughout the afternoon and each guest received a piece of the luscious birthday cake. Small tables were scattered about, rendering unnecessary the usual acrobatic and sometimes disastrous tea-juggling often a part of less thoughtfully managed affair.

Club members in the receiving line were the president, Mrs. H. S. Nye, Mrs. Karl Randtorff, Mrs. J. B. McCarthy, Miss Agnes Ford, Mrs. Willis J. White and Mrs. Osborn Johnson.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Kent Clark, Mrs. William Froli, Mrs. Morris N. Wild, Mrs. J. L. Cockburn and Mrs. S. W. Ten Winkle. Pouring were Mrs. James K. Lynch, Mrs. J. G. Hooper and Mrs. I. N. Ford. Assisting the hostesses were Junie Clark, Margaret Dorrance, Josephine Heyl and Evelyn Cockburn.

Club members wish especially to thank the boys of the Shell station at Seventh and San Carlos for their assistance with the decorations, which included a masterly touch in balloon-inflating.

Coming Events.

Jan. 8—Whist party, Serra Crespi hall, Old Mission, 8:30

Jan. 8—Meeting Musical Arts Society.

Jan. 9—Annual meeting Carmel Chapt. Am. Red Cross, 3:30 p. m., Guild hall.

Jan. 10—Fortnightly dance, Denny - Watrous Gallery, Al-Knight's orchestra.

Jan. 12—Nicol Smith lecture on Dutch Guiana, Denny-Watrous Gallery.

Jan. 24, 25, 26—Glory Lane, John Patrick—Denny Watrous Gallery.

Personal Items

Mrs. J. M. Szekele and her daughter, Miss Julianne, of Wilmington, spent the holidays in Carmel. They expect to return for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhys Williams spent New Year's Eve at Hotel Del Monte, the guests of Mr. J. R. D. Malkin of Vancouver, and his daughter, Miss Ursula Malkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wurzmann greeted the New Year in Berkeley.

Mrs. Hallie P. Lane of San Anselma is spending several days in Carmel visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Sahlstrom Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lindley have returned to their home in Stockton after a vacation at Rainbow cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hare of Berkeley found Carmel such a delightful place for a vacation during the holidays, they are making arrangements to lease for a year a cottage on North Lincoln street in which to spend weekends and vacations. Mrs. Hare is a teacher in Oakland. Mrs. Hare, an attorney, is spending much time writing. His chief interest is in biography.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rock, of Buena Vista street, are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Rock's father and mother from Salt Lake.

Marian Plimton, SERA social service worker, has been transferred to Santa Barbara.

Miss Mildred (Tiny) Pearson has returned to school in Santa Barbara after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nixon.

Ross Kiester went to Oakland over New Year's and returned with Ralph James and Ann Tyler.

Mrs. Clark Brockway and Mrs. Sara Trombaux were hostesses at tea last Saturday afternoon. The affair was given to honor Miss Patricia Connor and her aunt, Mrs. M. B. Chelsey, of Kansas City.

Miss Hazel Kirk was one of a party of San Franciscans who spent the week end in Carmel.

The regular monthly meeting of the Carmel P.T. A. will be held on Monday, January 14, instead of Monday, January 7, as previously announced. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of Sunset school.

Miss Dene Denny has returned from a holiday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Denny, in Etna, Siskiyou coun-
